

ORDER FORM

DVD: A resource for Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islanders

“That Diabetes” Tackling It Together

“That Diabetes” Tackling It Together is an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander documentary that was produced by Blackfella Films Pty Ltd. The aim of the project was to visually present the harshness, beauty and remoteness of the Australian landscape and to highlight in a culturally sensitive way the difficulties faced by many Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people in relation to diabetes. The production and distribution of this documentary has been made possible with funding by the National Diabetes Services Scheme (NDSS) – an initiative of the Australian Government administered by Diabetes Australia.

To request a free copy of the resource, please complete the form below and return either by post/fax/email:

Diabetes Australia Ltd
GPO Box 3156
Canberra ACT 2601

F: (02) 6230 1535

E: admin@diabetesaustralia.com.au

Name:
Position:
Organisation:
Phone:
Email:
Postal Address:
Would you like to receive notification in the future for other diabetes related resources developed for Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander people? Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No <input type="checkbox"/>

For more information on the NDSS call 1300 136 588 or visit ndss.com.au